

A Convict Has Quit, Other Still Holds Hostages

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Robert Rivera, one of the two hardened convicts who held an estimated 15 hostages in the state penitentiary since Wednesday afternoon, came out at 12:20 p.m. (CST) today.

The other convict, Raymond Farra, remained inside the room with the hostages.

Rivera was brought out by Clifton Colton, who has been acting in a legal capacity for some fellow inmates.

The convict came out after Charles Moss, executive editor of the Nashville Banner gave Colton a paper and Colton took it into the room where the hostages were held.

By MARVIN BEARD
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two hardened convicts released one of their hostages in the Tennessee Penitentiary shortly before noon because of illness.

Jack Warrick, a prison guard and telephone operator was released to get a bottle of milk because he has stomach ulcers. Sam Broyles, a convict-hostage, was released Wednesday night for the same reason and did not return. News men were unable to talk to him.

Charles Cottle, a prison psychologist, said Warrick told him the convicts have treated all their hostages well.

"Nobody has been hurt or roughed up," Warrick told the psychologist.

Warrick was not permitted to talk to newsmen at the prison and was not taken back into the room with the other hostages. He said he believed one of the convicts was ready to come out if the other one would agree.

Other developments inside the prison led officials to hope for an early agreement to release the hostages.

Remaining 1,700 or more prisoners had not been fed since the "rebellion" that started Wednesday night but there was no indication today of further protest. Officials declined to say when they would be fed.

Other developments inside the prison led officials to hope for an early agreement to release the hostages.

By GAVIN SCOTT
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A hardened convict told newsmen by telephone from his cell in the Tennessee Penitentiary today he was willing to surrender himself and his hostages if his partner would do so. But he said the second convict refused.

Robert Rivera, 25, of Temple, Tex., serving 40 years on an armed robbery charge, and Charles Raymond Farra, 25, of Penderland, W. Va., serving life for robbery, have held 16 to 19 hostages at gun-point since mid-afternoon Wednesday. None was hurt. Three hostages are women.

Rivera told a newsmen in a telephone interview on a pool basis that he would surrender if officials would release Farra from prison or if Farra would agree to the surrender. State authorities would make no agreement to release either man.

"We can hold out here a long time," Rivera told the newsmen. "We won't hurt the women unless Continued on Page Six

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Arkansans yesterday urged a House Agriculture Subcommittee to approve legislation for continued importation of Mexican national farm workers.

H. R. Adams, representing the Agricultural Council of Arkansas, said Arkansas farmers need and use Mexicans.

He testified in support of a bill by Rep. E. C. Gathings (D-Ark.) which would extend an importation law for two years beyond June 30, 1961. James P. Baker of Helena, Ark., attorney for the Phillips County Farmers Assn., also urged that the law be extended.

Adams said he approved a provision to give the Secretaries of Labor and Agriculture authority to regulate wages and working conditions for the workers. The Secretary of Labor now has sole authority for such regulations.

Some farm organizations have opposed regulations put into effect by Labor Secretary James Mitchell, especially concerning the wages. Adams said in Arkansas, the third largest user of Mexicans, the piece rate for cotton picking is higher than in states which do not use the workers.

Shep Finally Licked by a Wild Animal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — "Old Shep," a terror to wild animals and enemy dogs, has been killed by a human who was his friend.

Shep was bitten by a rabid fox and spread the disease himself before two blasts from a shotgun ended his life.

Dr. Harvie R. Ellis, veterinarian for the State Health Department, told the story here yesterday in urging that owners of dogs have them inoculated against rabies.

Ellis said that for 14 years the 80-pound shep lived on a farm near Moro Creek in Cleveland County near the Dallas County line.

Shep fought off stray dogs, wolves, foxes and bobcats in the Southeast and Southwest Arkansas, years ago lost an eye in combat with a timber wolf.

One day last month Shep was bitten by a small stray fox. He was finally killed by a shotgun blast from the larger dog.

U. S. Rejects Soviet Claim of Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States formally rejected today Russia's claim that Berlin is part of Soviet controlled East Germany.

The State Department produced documents in English and Russian which it said "clearly indicate that Berlin was designated as a separate area to be jointly occupied."

The documents were signed by Soviet, American and British representatives in London on Sept. 12, 1944—before Berlin had been captured by Soviet forces.

News men were handed a photographic reproduction of the original English and Russian texts which spelled out the zones the troops of each would occupy.

Bennett in Criticism of the ESD

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett today criticized the state Employment Security Division for hiring a retired federal employee from Dallas, Texas, a newly created job.

The man is Ed F. McDonald, 71, who is scheduled to go on the ESD payroll Monday as coordinator of manpower and civil defense.

McDonald has been regional Social Security director at Dallas. Bennett, a candidate for governor, said his office was investigating whether McDonald, as a retired federal employee, can take a job for which the salary is drawn from federal funds.

Bennett said the new job would pay $4,400 a year in addition to McDonald's $486 a month retirement pay.

"There are a lot of people who feel there are qualified persons in Arkansas for a job such as this," Bennett said.

The attorney general said he felt employment of McDonald at 71 conflicted with practices in other departments of the state government such as the State Hospital and Highway Department which have a mandatory retirement age of 65.

William M. Lee of Clarendon filed for renomination as prosecutor in the 17th Judicial District. He is seeking his fourth term.

A. S. Todd Harrison of Blountville filed in the Second Judicial District, the fourth candidate to seek the post being vacated by Prosecutor Terry Shell. Harrison now is a deputy prosecutor in the district.

MEMPHIS (AP)—A three-state goodwill tour promoting Memphis' Cotton Carnival will start April 25, it was announced today.

The bus load of 60 persons will include the king and queen of the Cotton Carnival.

About 25 cities in Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi will be visited.

Itineraries for the Arkansas and Mississippi tours have not been set.

Each tour will last one day. At every town visited, a cotton dress contest will be held.

New Violence Flares in South Africa

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—New violence flared early today in the big Nyanga Negro settlement near Cape Town. The Africans set up road blocks, built fires in the street and kept out white police patrols for hours.

Police held their fire. The Nationalist government and police charged "terrorist agitators" in Nyanga and other Negro settlements were resorting to death threats and assault to enforce a work boycott Negro leaders ordered after police earlier this week killed about 80 Negroes and wounded more than 200.

A midnight alert sent police patrols rushing to Nyanga. They found the settlement barricaded, with oil drums stacked in road-blocks and fires burning.

Whites who entered the settlement on foot were ordered out by the Negroes.

At daybreak a strong police force managed to penetrate the settlement and described the situation as "quiet but tense."

The Negroes have shifted their campaign against the white supremacy law requiring them to carry passes by resorting to work stoppages instead of demonstrations.

A creeping paralysis has begun to be felt in some industrial centers, especially in the Vereeniging coal mining and steel district.

UA Information Officer Named

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—William W. Hughes, information officer at the University Medical Center in Little Rock, has been named information director at the University of Arkansas.

Hughes, 41, succeeds Storm Whaley who recently was appointed vice president for health sciences at Little Rock.

University President David W. Mullins said Hughes will take over his new job April 1 at Fayetteville.

Hughes is a native of Nebraska. He joined the Medical Center in July, 1957, as assistant information director.

Previously he had been a newsman on the staff of the Arkansas Gazette.

The new information director is a graduate of the University of Nebraska School of Journalism. He and his wife have four daughters.

Jack Ray of Ram Wood Products left yesterday for an extended tour of sports shows. He will appear on two shows in Iowa and another in Detroit.

From there he will go to Toronto and North Bay, Canada for two one week shows and on to Peterborough, Kishner and Hamilton, Ontario for sports shows. The tour last approximately six weeks.

A public meeting has been called at Union Grove Church for March 29 at 7 p.m. for the purpose of setting up a permanent committee to look after the church cemetery, to discuss plans to build a fence around the cemetery and ways and means to raise funds for the project.

Irvin Whitley urges all interested parties to attend the meeting.

Judge to Rule on Integration Case in July

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Federal Judge John E. Miller has taken under advisement the latest issue in the complicated Little Rock integration case.

A final ruling in the four-year litigation over racial mixing in the schools could be handed down by mid-summer.

Miller yesterday gave Negro attorney Wiley Branton of Pine Bluff until April 16 to file a brief supporting his contention that Negroes should be allowed in schools nearest their homes.

Board lawyers will have until May 21 to reply. Branton will have 10 days beyond this date to file a rebuttal brief.

Miller has indicated he wants to dispose of the case. He said he felt any further action should be handled on an individual basis. The present suit is a class action.

Testimony in a two-day hearing ended yesterday with a statement by School Board President Everett Tucker Jr. that the five Negro students at Central High School and three at Hall High are shunned by white classmates.

Tucker said, "This is a rather cruel situation," but added the outlook was "much brighter than in the tense days of 1957-58." That year, the nine Negroes who first integrated Central under federal troop guard were harassed almost constantly in the school.

The Board has acted sternly toward physical molestation of the Negro students, Tucker said, but it "cannot have control over attitudes or intolerance."

During the hearing the School Board announced that it does not plan to extend integration to junior high schools this year, as called for in the original plan filed with the court in 1956.

That plan said junior high desegregation should start in 1959 or 1960 if the high school phase were successful. The School Board questions the success.

All six board members testified at the hearing and all six denied that they had used pupil placement laws to limit integration.

Judge Miller said there actually are three important contentions in the present case:

1. That students should attend schools in the attendance areas in which they live, regardless of race.

2. That pupil placement laws cannot be used to deny them that right.

3. That even if the court rules the placement law can be used that way, the Little Rock board has acted "to perpetuate segregation and thwart previous orders of the court."

House Passed Civil Rights Bill to Have Tough Time in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed its five-point civil rights bill today and sent it on to the Senate where the measure was already being tagged unsatisfactory by both extremes in the big battle there over this issue.

The House passage vote was anti climactic. A final vote had been delayed since Wednesday by a Southern parliamentary maneuver. But the issue really was settled two days ago when the House adopted the key provision—a plan for Negroes fight voting discrimination.

The bill's dispatch to the Senate moves the whole civil rights battle into a new phase.

The Senate took up the civil rights issue Feb. 15, but some senators have felt that action should be held up until they see what the House did.

There was no immediate word as to what method Senate leaders will favor for handling the House bill.

There were increasing indications, however, that they may seek to have the House bill sent to the Senate Judiciary Committee with instructions that it be reported back within a fixed number of days.

Such a move would be designed to counter objections to bypassing committee consideration of the legislation. It also would enable the Senate to move on briefly with other business before coming back to the civil rights issue.

In its wrestling over civil rights, the Senate has come to several key votes indicative of sentiment. One such came today, shortly before passage of the House bill, and rejected a double-barreled voting rights plan urged by a group of Republican and Democratic senators.

Tabled and thus killed by the Senate was an amendment combining the chief features of the administration's proposal for court-appointed voting referees and an alternative plan for federal enrollment officers appointed by the president.

The roll call vote was 51-43. The amendment was sponsored by Sens. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) and Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) and other senators who contend the referee plan in itself is inadequate to protect Negro voting rights.

The referee plan is the key provision in the House bill and has the backing of the Eisenhower administration.

Segregation in Housing Discussed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Housing segregation is a problem in both north and south, a Chicago Urban League official said last night, but "many Southern cities have housing integration although no other integration exists."

Edward L. Holmgren, the Chicago League's housing director, said "Chicago has the reputation of being the most segregated city in the country."

He said housing segregation was not as visible in the South, but was a significant problem among Negroes all over the country.

"Anybody can't buy his shelter wherever he chooses," Holmgren told a Little Rock Urban League meeting. He said a long legal fight is needed to do something about housing segregation and "let people go where they dollars and desires take them."

Holmgren urged formation of a community-wide interracial group in Little Rock to end racial discrimination in housing and obtain better housing for Negroes and other minority groups.

Burglars Hit Store on North Hazel

Russell's Grocery and Market on North Hazel was burglarized last night and a first check revealed $40 in pennies are missing. So far as could be determined nothing else was missing.

Harrison Was Only Purpose of 'Arthur'

TELEVISION IN REVIEW
By FRED DANZIG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — The only purpose of Tuesday night's NBC-TV "Startling" production of "Dear Arthur" was to let us underprivileged viewers enjoy the talents of Rex Harrison.

It was, to coin a phrase, a privilege and a pleasure. The play (no dad, it's not the new title for the Arthur Murray Party) was a Gore Vidal treatment of Perceval's bit of pneumatic nonsense about a gay deception among the French Riviera's international set.

Harrison, that internationally famed song stylist, played the non-singing role of a glossy, principled con man. To this part he brought his charm, his magnificent speaking voice, which glides from a virile high-pitch down to a rough-edged purr, his limber and communicative hands and his eyebrow-raising coil of stage conduct. He was at his wicked, winning best. The combination made for sheer entertainment. After all, we've grown accustomed to his ways.

The plot, briefly, placed Harrison in Prince Rainier's Monaco, where he was to dream up a mythical, perfect (now, there's a redundancy) husband, Count Arthur de Guise (for his loving daughter, Arthur's purpose was to arouse a flame of passion in daughter's tame suitor. The scheme worked — but too well. As the boy-girl relationship began to swing, the scheme began to backfire. Along came a near-riot, a clever innkeeper who could dam Arthur, through "attorney" Harrison, for some old hotel bills, and another lawyer to collect a large payment for a 14-year-old indiscretion of Arthur's. At that point, Harrison closed out Arthur's life and went on to new triumphs, inand Mrs. Thomas Dewoody and daughters in Gurdon.

George Woosley spent Thursday in Little Rock.

Mrs. T. A. Lavender and Miss Mary Jewelle motored to Little Rock Saturday.

Miss June Hines, student at Ouachita College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hines over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Moody were guests Sunday of Mrs. Dale Wilson in Hope.

Miss Mary Jewelle Herring has returned to Ft. Smith after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Herring.

Friends of Mrs. Earl Eppler will regret that she is ill at her home.

cluding the fleeing of King Farouk.

Decorating the production (put together by Bretnig Windust shortly before his death last week) were some satirical comments about the international set, enunciated by Hermione Baddeley, Sarah Marshall, as Rex's daughter, was beguiling, flirtatious and high-spirited and Nicholas Pryor was excellent, too, as her earnest suitor.

I also enjoyed small vignettes by Robert Dryden, in the role of a lawyer, and Gaby Rodgers, as a girl supposedly wronged by

"Dear Arthur." The final half of Arthur Murray's fun-roast-for-charity-and-Bob Hope had sharper gags and a less-inhibited spirit than last week's opener.

Tuesday night's NBC-TV half-hour saw Hope receive, among his gag awards, a can of canned laughter. I suspect some of the can's ingredients found its way out of the container and into Tuesday night's sound track.

Highlights: Hope "walking" with host Arthur Murray and Hope's own monologue, which contained funnier, more pointed jokes about himself than anything delivered by his "roasters."

It seemed that Hope was willing to serve as the roast duck for this format but the gag writers were a trifle too chicken.

The Channel Swim: Jim Garner and Jack Kelly, suspended stars of ABC-TV's "Maverick," are talking about court action against Warner Bros., producer of the show. At issue is salary during the production layoff.

"Moment of Fear," an hour-long suspense series, in color, will replace NBC-TV's Friday night fights beginning July 1. The fights become a Saturday night ABC-TV feature starting this summer.

Next Monday's "Jack Paar Show," his first from London, will feature Julie Andrews, Dicky Valentine and Hans Conried, M.P. (member of Paar-liament.)

The Masters golf tourney from Augusta, Ga., will be covered by CBS-TV cameras on Saturday and Sunday, April 9 and 10. Andy Devine is set to star in next season's new half-hour mystery series on NBC-TV, "Big Jake."

Boris Karloff will emcee "Hollywood Sings," the Sunday, April 3 NBC-TV special that stars Tammy Grimes "The Cool Rebellion," described as a self-portrait of the beat generation, will be a CBS radio special on Tuesday, April 5.

Husband's Outside Child Becomes Problem for Wife

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been married for 21 years and have a daughter who is 20 and a son 19 in the army. My problem is that my husband has an outside child who I took in because her aunt and cousin didn't want her. Later when I saw anything to her, if my husband is around, she cries and then we have an argument about it. He said I was mean to her. If I was mean, I would never have taken her in. I used to love her but she became nasty, so please tell me what to do. I am 38 and my husband is 43. — K.L.B.H.

Dear K.L.B.H.: A star in your crown for taking in your husband's "outside child."

The best way to make the little girl behave is through constructive love before coming to Hope next Wednesday to spend the remainder of her spring vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Foster.

Plane Crash Takes Lives of 4 Persons

ELKINS, W. Va. (AP) — Searchers shortly before noon today reached the charred wreckage of an Air Force C-45 plane carrying three men and a woman. The Civil Air Patrol said all four persons were dead.

The Air Force C-45 was en route to Denver when last heard from about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in a driving snowstorm.

Through the morning ground parties with snowshoes had to pick their way down a mountain side to get to the wreckage.

With state road commission equipment, leading the way to clear drifts, two ground parties of the way on foot and they reached back to Elkins that they needed more snowshoes.

The idea of lowering a man, directly to the wreck by hoist, from an Army search helicopter had to be given up for the time being. Air turbulence kept the helicopter grounded on a farm near Macksville.

The wreck, identifiable from the air as a twin-engine, four-propeller plane, was spotted from a search helicopter Wednesday afternoon. There was no sign of survivors. The location is about 25 air miles southeast of Elkins and north of from 4,000-foot Spruce Knob, highest point in West Virginia.

Play Resumes Tonight in Pro Playoff

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Boston Celtics, mindful that Philadelphia's Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain is no longer a cripple, buckle down to the business of trying to win their fourth straight National Basketball Assn.'s Eastern Division playoffs tonight. The teams square off at Philadelphia in the sixth game of the best-of-seven series.

And the St. Louis Hawks, whose coach Ed Macauley, faces the possibility of losing his job if they are eliminated, try to stave off the Minneapolis Lakers, who lead 3-2 in the Western finals.

The Celtics, also holding a 3-2 lead, won all of their games while Chamberlain was hampered with a badly bruised hand incurred last Friday night in a fight with Boston's Tom Heinsohn. But Wilt returned to full-time action Tuesday night with 50 points that kept the Warriors in contention.

Last year the Celtics won the NBA title in four games from the Lakers.

Minneapolis is putting on a repeat performance of 1959's surprising finish. They won their third game Tuesday night in St. Louis, as happened a year ago, and now hope to repeat with the clinching victory before the home folks—also like last year.

Frick Won't Allow Pooling of Players

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said today he would not permit any pooling of players by the Class D Western Carolina League for the proposed third major of the Continental League.

"I will not permit this operation the way Branch Rickey (Continental League president) has outlined it," said Frick. "It would be a complete evasion of all the player limits."

Rickey's league does not plan to operate until 1961, but it would work with the Western Carolina League this year, signing players and distributing them to the minor league clubs according to an announced working agreement.

"If the Western Carolina League wanted to operate with working agreements between its clubs and clubs already in organized baseball, such as Denver, Toronto, Dallas and Jacksonville (owned by Houston's Continental League club) that could be worked out," said Frick. "But they cannot pool players or make agreements with clubs not yet in organized baseball."

Believes the Indians to Score a Lot

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "Our club has the potential to score a lot of runs and our infield defense is improved 100 per cent."

That's the appraisal of Joe Gordon, returning as manager of the Cleveland Indians that finished second in the American League last year.

In the power department for the Tribe this season, Gordon feels Rocky Colavito has the potential to hit 40 to 50 home runs, not a bad prediction since he clubbed 41 in 1958 and 42 last year. Also, Joe feels Tito Francona, who hit 363 last year with 20 homers should hit 20 to 25 this campaign and Woodie Held add another 25 to 35.

"Both Vic Power and Johnny Temple can hit 300 and John Romano potentially is a good power hitter," surmises the pilot.

The infield should line up with Power at first, ex-National leaguer Temple at second, either Held or veteran George Strickland at shortstop and Bubba Phillips at third.

Gordon looks over a big bunch of pitchers this spring trying to decide which to keep on the varsity. Heading the youthful list might be Gary Bell and Jim Perry who won 16 and 12 in 1959. Both are 23-year-old right-handers.

Left-hander Herb Score could make a big difference if he can regain his winning form. He started great last campaign but lost his effectiveness to finish at 9-11.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant posted a 10-7 mark last year.

Gordon also looks at some veterans and a group of youngsters hoping to make the grade. Veterans are Bob Lemon, Jack Harshman, Johnny Briggs, Ernie Johnson and Leo Kiley. Rookies include Carl Thomas, Wynn Hawkins, Dick Stigman and Bobby Locke.

Colavito and Francona have two of the outfield jobs nailed with Jimmy Piersall expected to open in center although ex-pro football halfback Carroll Hardy gives him a run for the spot.

Gordon claims to have no particular problems except "bringing the pitchers around and getting them ready for the season."

Golf Machine Being Tested in New York

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Count down: 5-4-3-2—boom!"

Cape Canaveral Another missile shot into orbit Nope, just the basement of Golf House, 40 E. 38th St. Manhattan — and another golf ball shot into nowhere.

The U. S. Golf Assn. today look the wraps off a $40,000 contraption designed to keep golf balls from traveling so far.

It's an ironic twist: pros and duffers alike just a stomach muscle clenching to get more distance on their drives. And the golf fathers hire scientists to cut them down.

"This is not just a silly whim," said Joseph Dey, executive director of the USGA, with obvious concern. "With the development of longer hitters in golf and the manufacturers' attempts to improve the golf ball, we are faced with the threat of making (thousands of) golf courses obsolete."

The latest USGA machine is the third contrived by the USGA since 1947 to check and place limits on the flight of a golf ball.

This one—a rather classy looking collection of pipes and bolts no bigger than Junior's short wave set—is designed to measure the ball's "resiliency factor."

A companion machine in the basement of Golf House—bigger and less intricate—measures the initial velocity. Another machine, located at Winged Foot in Mamaroneck, N.Y., tests the actual flight of the ball.

The latest machine shows the ball by compressed nitrogen through a barrel against a surface equivalent to the face of a wooden golf club. Electronic eyes record the result of the impact.

If the ball shows too much resiliency—more than 75 per cent of its potential, say—it is declared illegal.

"The deal for present-day golf courses is a ball which can be hit by the average long-hitting pro no more than 240 yards on the carry with a 20-yard flat roll," said Dr. William Gordon, who cooked up the latest monstrosity.

"We know the manufacturers can make a ball which will carry 50 yards farther. This we must prevent."

Walk Mars a No-Hitter for Yank Hurlers

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

A couple of rookie right-handers — Johnny James and Bill Beloit — pitched a no-hitter for the New York Yankees against the Philadelphia Phillies Wednesday and just missed a perfect game in stalling up a 4-0 shutout.

A base on balls to Johnny Calleson in the first inning gave the Phillies their only base runner. The walk came on a 3-1 pitch by James who worked the first five innings and fanned three. Beloit struck out five in his 4-inning stint. James was with Richmond of the International League last year and Beloit with Omaha of the American Assn.

The no-hitter was the second of the exhibition season. Bennie Daniels and Jim Unbricht shared a Pittsburgh no-hitter against Detroit a week ago.

In both Florida and Arizona, the pitchers were really in form Wednesday.

Carl Willey, Milwaukee right-hander, threw seven shutout innings as the Braves beat Kansas City 2-0 at Bradenton.

Daniels also went seven for Pittsburgh, but the right-hander gave up four hits and three runs in the Pirates' 6-4 victory over St. Louis at Port Myers.

Left-handers Johnny Podres of Los Angeles and Joe Nuxhall of Cincinnati turned in solid six-inning trunks.

Podres held Baltimore runless as the world champions stopped the Orioles 3-1 at Vero Beach, and Nuxhall checked Washington with two runs in the Reds' 4-3 triumph at Orlando.

And the rookie pitchers also had their innings.

A new left-hander, Jake Striker, limited Detroit to one run and four hits in the first five innings as the Chicago White Sox tripped the Tigers 7-3 at Sarasota.

Wynn Hawkins, a rookie right-hander, blanked San Francisco on one hit for the opening four innings at Tucson where Cleveland won 6-4.

Billy Monthouquette didn't get the start, but he turned in a spectacular relief job for the Boston Red Sox. The flashy right-hander faced 13 Chicago Cubs, retired 12 of them and struck out 5-2 victory at Mesa.

Montreal Seeks 5th Straight Cup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens start their quest for a fifth straight Stanley Cup — emblematic of world hockey supremacy — tonight when they open a best-of-seven semifinal series with the Chicago Black Hawks.

The Detroit Red Wings look a 1-0 lead in their series with Toronto to Wednesday night, edging the Maple Leafs 2-1.

Montreal, also winner of three straight NHL regular season titles, will pit its Vezina Trophy-winning goalie, Jacques Plante, against Chicago's Glenn Hall, who finished second in the duel for league goal-tending honors.

The Red Wings and Leafs are idle tonight.

Gordie Howe scored the Red Wings clincher to give Detroit a 2-0 lead. They had to hang on to overcome a furious Toronto finish.

No Settlement Yet

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A spokesman for striking Local 295, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, said last night he does not expect an early settlement of a walkout by 16 electrical workers at the Greers Ferry Dam project near Heber Springs.

The union walked out over a recognition agreement but its picketing has not halted work on the dam.

we are rushed. We haven't cursed the women. We can wait. We might be awful skinny (before it's over) but we can wait."

Rivera asked to talk to one newsman on the pool arrangement so he could list some of his grievances. The convict then listened on an extension phone while a trustee, held among the hostages, listed them.

The trustee said Rivera's complaints included: Procedures of the parole board in considering parole applications, proper medical attention, sanitary conditions at the prison, lack of educational facilities for inmates and the use of paddles for punishing unruly prisoners.

Rivera then permitted one of the hostages, Byron Bean, Nashville lawyer, to speak by telephone to the newsman. Bean, caught in the group while visiting a client, said the two convicts were holding 18 hostages, including five trustees. One, Sam Broyles, was released during the night because of illness. He suffers from stomach ulcers.

Previous reports placed the number at nine and then Corrections Commissioner Keith Hampton said late Wednesday night there were 16.

The trustees, prisoners whose good behavior entitles them to certain privileges, were not participating in the rebellion. Officials believe five of them may have been forced into the captured deputy warden's office with the others.

Officials believe the convicts were ready to ease up on their original requests.

Chicken and Beef Good Market Bets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicken and roast beef loom as likely bets for Sunday dinner, judging from specials advertised by supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend.

Broilers and fryers, once largely a summer item, have become a year-round staple in recent years. This week's bargains stem from a 6 per cent increase in chick placements in January and the February gain of about 5 per cent over a year earlier. The number of eggs set in incubators in mid-January was around 45 million, which compared with a September low of 32 million.

Specials in beef center on rib roast and top or bottom round roast. Prices are marked down 4 to 12 cents a pound from last week in some Southern and Midwestern areas. Leg of lamb is higher in the East and South and, therefore, only infrequently offered as the special feature.

Eggs advanced in price reflecting the small shipments caused by recent extensive snow storms. Prices are up 2 to 6 cents a dozen over a wide area.

While this works abatement on those housewives seeking meat substitutes during Lent, alternate suggestions are shrimp and rice, both of which are on the government's March list of plentiful, and inexpensive, foods. Cottage cheese also is suggested for meatless meals.

Vegetables on the outstanding buy list this week are broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, green onions, iceberg lettuce, mushrooms, medium yellow onions, potatoes (although slightly higher than last week), radishes, sweet rooms, medium yellow onions, potatoes (although slightly higher than last week), radishes, sweet potatoes and rhubarb. Good buys are asparagus, beets, cauliflower, and live, escarole, parsley, spinach, rutabagas, small to medium peppers and yellow, straight-necked squash. You'll pay slightly more for artichokes, snap beans, cucumbers, eggplant, peas and tomatoes.

A big increase in imports of Chilean honeydew melons lends them on the outstanding fruit buy list along with grapefruit, oranges and pineapples.

Faith, Love Help Keep Child Alive

By GEORGE ESPPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Five-year-old Kenny Barnes, who was born without bile ducts, lies in a hospital today in critical condition.

Perhaps the faith and love of his mother and father have carried Kenny this far.

Doctors say children born without bile ducts ordinarily live only six months to a year.

"We'll never get the answer," Mrs. Jean Barnes, 27, of Palmyra, N.J., his mother, said today. "It's a mystery why he's lived so long. But love can do so much for a sick person that they'll fight to live. What can I do now but wait and pray and hope."

Kenny has been in and out of hospitals since he was born. Only two weeks ago he had been released from Einstein Medical Center and sent home again to gain strength for an operation.

But his condition deteriorated and he was sent back to the hospital, Tuesday. He is in a near coma. Hospital sources said a coma could be fatal.

"He is very, very ill," medical officials reported today. "We're trying to keep him alive. Love of parents and the anatomy of the liver have kept him going."

"He is as thin as a spider and his mental and physical condition have deteriorated. We don't know all the facts or the answers except that in some cases the liver retains its ability to keep some of its functions. It's very difficult to get information because these cases are so rare, but we're making some progress."

Mrs. Barnes said the boy weighs 31 pounds. She said he won't eat as he should.

Mrs. Barnes and her husband, a barber, have two other children.

Pick the Wrong Car
FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP)—Three teen-agers picked the wrong car to steal for a joyride Tuesday. The auto belonged to Monmouth County Under Sheriff Fred G. Brown. The youths were picked up a few hours later.

BAD WEATHER

I think we will all agree that this has been one of the worst winters in many years. February 2nd, was a bad day for the Telephone people here in Hope and other parts of Arkansas. As you remember that was the day we had the most ice of the winter. The phone lines were coated with ice so heavy they were unable to hold up.

At one time seven towns that work out of the Hope exchange were without long distance service. Our local service was affected also. At one time about 350 phones were out of service here in Hope. Men from other towns, not affected by the ice storm, were sent to help our local people so that we might restore service as soon as possible.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your patience and understanding during this time. We assure you we will always do everything we can to restore your service as soon as possible when it is interrupted.

PICK-A-PHONE...

"Sure be nice when the spring flowers start blooming," a fellow down the block said the other day. "Just looking at their colors make me feel good."

"Sav," I said, "since you like color so much, I have a suggestion."

"What's that?" he asked.

"A color phone. You have a wide choice. Red, white, green — true altogether." Almost as an afterthought I added, "You can pick your phone from... a garden of colors."

That did it. "Now you're talking my language," said my garden-loving friend. He chuckled. "Colors of the garden in my house with color phones. Think I'll get one — maybe even two."

Why don't you do as he did? Treat yourself to color phones.

IT'S SMART TO LOOK UP THE NUMBER

The best way to learn and remember something is to look it up. That's what a teacher told me years ago when I asked how to spell a word.

It was good advice then. It's good advice now. When you want to know a number, for instance, the best thing to do is look it up in the directory.

Incidentally, if you'd like a free Blue Book for keeping frequently-called numbers, just phone the telephone business office.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

New Trend, Match Dress, Table Cloth

By DOROTHY ROE

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—You can match your dress to your tablecloth down here in the land of the barbecue and the chuckwagon, where you can ride out on the range and rope your own steak.

Charles Dickey, a breezy Texan who manufactures some of the cream of the crop of Dallas casual fashions, has been doing a landoffice business in tablecloth-checked patio and play dresses, delivered complete with barbecue tablecloths to match. Take your choice of coral, blue, pink, black or turquoise checks.

"Funny thing about it," draws Dickey, "is that they've been selling just as fast in New York as in Texas—and you know darn well nobody in New York has room for a barbecue table, Texas size."

Well, partner, they don't roast their steers whole on New York penthouse terraces, but there's usually room for a man-size hunk of beef, even on those new-fangled grills, and nothing gives a New Yorker a greater kick than going Western, right in the middle of the skyscrapers. Which is one reason for the popularity of these Texas fashions, from Maibau to Manhattan.

Dickey's showing climaxed a colorful parade of cool and casual summer fashions by Dallas manufacturers, viewed with enthusiasm by the visiting press. After seeing a cross-section of Southwestern styles, from swim suits to antebellum ball gowns, the consensus among editors is that there's no excuse for any woman to look dowdy, when she can buy these gay, good-looking and easily cared-for clothes with pennies saved from the grocery budget.

Consider, for instance, getting a smart black sheer cotton bare-top, dress and cover-up jacket, good for all day at the office and all night out on the town, for less than $18. That's a typical number from Brogan and Jennings.

In these days of the higher cost of everything, it's comforting to know that—if she tries—a woman can still get her money's worth in clothes.

Death Comes to Film Actress

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Death climaxed a long series of personal misfortunes Tuesday for actress Lynne Baggett.

The 32-year-old blonde was found dead in her bed, a quantity of pills nearby.

Police attributed her death to an overdose of medication pending an autopsy.

Her death ended a career once considered promising but marred by a broken marriage, court battles, personal tragedy and illness.

She came to Hollywood as a 19-year-old starlet from Wichita Falls, Tex. She never became a star although she appeared in supporting roles in many films.

Virtue May Win

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Frauds, cheats and sharpies, watch out: Virtue may do away with you.

State Atty. Gen. Paul Adams has assigned Asst. Atty. Gen. Maxine B. Virtue to map out a state campaign against rackets and fraudulent operations.

Beauty Weds Wealth in Film Fashion

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marriage in the best Hollywood tradition—merging wealth and beauty—begins unpretentiously Thursday for film starlet Lance Reventlow and actress Jill St. John.

Reventlow, 24, a playboy with a flair for auto racing, reportedly is heir to more than 20 million dollars. This will be his first marriage.

Miss St. John, 19, a red-haired starlet who has been in the entertainment business since the age of 6, was married at 16 to a linen supply company executive and divorced at 18. Her press agents say she has an IQ of 162 (genius rating).

The young couple say they will be wed in a civil ceremony but won't say where. They got a marriage license at Riverside Tuesday.

The small group attending the wedding will include Reventlow's mother, heiress Barbara Hutton, and Jill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oppenheim of Beverly Hills.

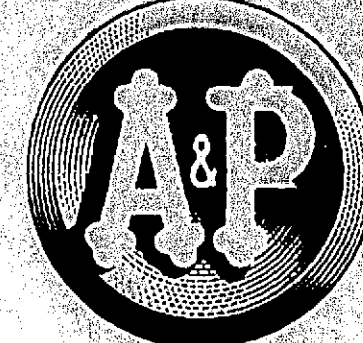

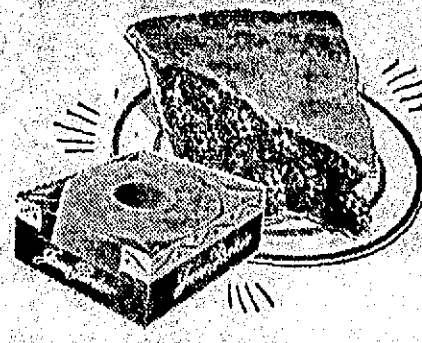

Jill said her wedding ring will be a plain platinum band.

"Anything more elaborate wouldn't look good because of the size of my diamond engagement ring," she said. "I don't know how many carats it is—I never asked Lance, but it looks big. It goes almost from knuckle to knuckle."

She said her husband-to-be is so enthusiastic about car racing that she had to make him change out of his racing overalls when they got their marriage license.

You Never Really Know Fellow Men

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—You never really know your fellow workers in a business firm until you join them in an office poker party.

Poker is a form of insomnia which separates the cards from the characters.

The game is usually played either in a rented hotel room or in the home of an employee whose wife has lost her sense of judgment—or merely wants to be sure, for one evening at least, where her husband really is.

Here are a few familiar types bound to turn up in any office game:

The friendly sandbagger—"It's only a game—I don't care if I win or lose," he says. But make one mistake in judgment, and he'll bat the fillings out of your teeth.

The career innocent—He insists he knows nothing about poker, but a lie detector test would show he majored in it throughout college and the war, has read every book on the subject, and has been barred from Las Vegas because of his skill.

The constant moaner—Win, lose or draw he groans all night like a man undergoing an appendectomy without an anesthetic. He can even find pain in a royal flush.

The butter-fingered tyrant—When it's his turn to deal, he spills the cards in everybody's lap. If he loses more than two bits in one pot, he gulps a sedative.

Superstitious Sam—He can't play unless the wind is from the northwest there's a green ashtray on his right, his rabbit foot is in working order, or the deck is replaced every 12 minutes.

The silver-throated cackler—"A funny thing happened to me on the way here," he starts—and his mouth never shuts the rest of the evening. He confines a poker game with a panel discussion at the United Nations. All talk and slow play makes him a dull boy.

The cigar store Indian—"Shut up, and play!" he growls, his poker-face hidden by a mask of cigar smoke. He didn't come for fun, he came for blood.

Top secret Charley—Playing his cards close to the vest isn't close enough for him. He holds them inside his shirt—as if the other players were Russian agents.

Paranoid Pete—The cards are against him. The dealer is against him. Luck is against him. So are his wife, the boss and the 20th century. All are linked in one big plot to destroy him.

The helliose bulldozer—"Let's get the ribbon clerks out of the game," he rumbles, trying to bluff a big pot with two sickly pair. He shoots his wad and five minutes later is trying to borrow from the ribbon clerks.

The soaring anarchist—Any normal poker game is too staid and tame for him. By midnight he's screaming, "Let's play with all the red cards wild!"

The home-loving clockwatcher—Once he gets a buck and a half ahead, he plays with one eye on his watch, and one ear turned to the telephone, hoping his wife will call in time. When he's behind, he wants to stay all night—and invite the milkman to join them.

The post-mortem mortician—This carping critic insists on reliving every hand and pointing out how everybody around the table made a technical flaw except him. He lost.

The spy—he doesn't care for the game, or whether he loses. He regards poker as a necessary business expense—a way to find out what really is going on in the office.

The secret hoarder—After each pot he hides his winnings in his coat pockets, his shirt pockets, his pants pockets and trouser cuffs. Every time he moves he clicks. When the game ends and he tries to stand up, he is so top-heavy he falls over and breaks his nose on the table.

Office poker isn't just a game of cards. It's a character X-ray.

Titon Passes Test

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Titan has passed its second long-range flight test and the Air Force expects to accelerate its test program to make up for time lost because of a series of failures.

One of the 98-foot intercontinental range giants successfully flew a 5,000-mile course Tuesday. This was the second Titan flight over this range in a month and raised Air Force hopes the missile has licked its problems.

A rash of explosions and other mishaps in a 10-month period dating to last May have left the program several months behind schedule.

Actors on Strike

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The striking Screen Actors Guild resumes negotiations Thursday with the Assn. of Motion Picture Producers.

At issue is the actors' demand for a share of profits from the sale of post-1948 movies to television.

The producers offered to revive talks Tuesday after the Guild accused them of stalling negotiations in the 17-day-old strike.

Everything Goes Western This Summer

By DOROTHY ROE
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Every-thing is going Western this sum-mer—fashions, food, TV shows, vernacular.
This is easily understood after a visit to Dallas, where "raunch" colors are the big things in clothes, and the most popular dish at the town's newest, luxury hotel is Pecons son-of-a-gun stew. When you meet a girl wearing the lat-est patchwork pants and crop-top on the beach, you say, "Hyn-nardner!" The TV Westerns are live and breathing out here.
This week's style shows by the Dallas Fashion Fashion Manufac-turers are a far cry from New York's Seventh Avenue or the Champs Elysee of Paris. Here the commentator is the owner of the firm, who is likely to show up in frontier pants and a cow-boy shirt.
These Dallas manufacturers are making money, and are selling their clothes to most of the other 49 states, mainly because they are turning out the kind of clothes American women like to wear at prices they can afford to pay.
Here you find no thousand-dollar ball gowns, no hobble skirts and hip belts, no alphabetical silhou-ettes. Fashion designers in Texas make easy, comfortable, colorful clothes that make women look pretty and feel good, all within the limits of the piggy bank.

Al Galvani, president of the Dallas Fashion Manufacturers' sum-mer it up. "We're making clothes for two kinds of women—the young wife who suddenly finds daddy isn't buying her clothes any more, and the work-ing girl who wants to look right and still live on her salary."

Music Lovers Are in for a Rare Treat

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Music lovers will have an opportunity tonight to see a reasonably exact facsimile of an important event in the development of American jazz.
CBS' birthday salute to Paul Whiteman (10:11 Eastern Stand-ard Time) will include a recon-struction of Whiteman's famed 1924 Aeolian Hall concert during which "Rhapsody in Blue" was first played.
It will be as authentic as possi-ble, too, because the man who arranged it, Pops Whiteman him-self, was on hand to recall all the details.
Whiteman, who will be 70 next Monday, remembers that the whole concert was whipped up in 12 days.
"I'd been talking about it for a long time," he says, "and George Gershwin and I had even decided on the name for the piece he would write for the occasion. Then some band leader announced he'd give a concert in the Metro-politan Opera House, so I had to beat him to it. The only place I could rent was Aeolian Hall—for 12 days ahead. I called George and told him he'd have to be "Rhapsody in Blue" written in 12 days. He screamed, but he did it. Gershwin was only about a page ahead of us writing the music as we rehearsed it."

Bing Crosby, who joined the Whiteman band years later as one of the Rhythm Boys, does a taped bit on tonight's show.

Someday somebody is going to write a drama about a circus clown who is a merry fellow with-out grievous problems of frustra-tions, but, of course, I'm just dreaming.
Wednesday night we had "The Charlie and The Kid" on CBS' Steel Hour. And, boy, did that Charlie clown have problems and was he sick, sick, sick—drinking too much and thinking he was still a high-wire artist. I sure felt sorry for that little orphan he was caring for.
Anyway, Richard Boone has had a little acting vacation under the big top and now he can go climb back on his horse.
Recommended tonight: Tones-see Ernie Ford Show, NBC, 9:30-10 Eastern Standard Time—with his protege, Tommy Sands, as guest; Revue, CBS, 10-11—a birth-day salute to Paul Whiteman on his 70th anniversary, loaded with musical nostalgia.
